NARRATIVE:

Rosales has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include carrying a loaded firearm in public place, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, child cruelty, disorderly conduct, and failure to appear. Rosales' longest state prison term was two (2) years for inflicting corporal injury on spouse. He was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 11th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Rosales qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of inflicting corporal injury on spouse meets the criteria for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
